

Media Relations Contact: Roberta Moore Patterson 919-321-8246, Roberta@romopr.com

GOD FIRES MAN RELEASES NEW ALBUM ON FEBRUARY 19, 2008 DIGITALLY & MARCH 18, 2008 PHYSICALLY

God Fires Man releases A Billion Balconies Facing the Sun through In De Goot Recordings on February 19, 2008 digitally and March 18, 2008 physically. The first focus track is “Dark” and the MP3 is available to download at http://www.reverbnation.com/controller/audio_player/download_song/280102 or streaming on <http://www.myspace.com/godfiresman>.

A Billion Balconies Facing the Sun was recorded with Ethan Dussault (Cave-In, Lot 6) and Brian Virtue (Audioslave, Deftones, Jane’s Addiction).

The members have a long history of making music in other bands before forming God Fires Man in the summer of 2006. Having been wined and dined by major labels with empty promises and failed commitments, they have seen all corners of an ever-changing industry. They sampled the delights and downfalls but have always persevered, driven by the music they create.

These industry experiences are channeled into God Fires Man lyrics with songs like “Killer” (“They lie to you as easy as they breathe”) “The Shrug” (“You’ll never change what this means to me”) and “Dark” which is a response to the current state of American social consciousness (“I want everyone to stop pretending everyone is happy, everything’s ok”). These songs are a rounded mix of influences from epic soundscapes to volatile guitar rock with a nod to their shoe-gazer heroes.

After forming, God Fires Man promptly recorded and released an online-only 5 track EP to great success in the UK, followed by a UK tour in January 2007. Shortly after came a record deal stateside through In De Goot Recordings and with Xtra Mile Recordings in the UK.

God Fires Man will released an UK-only “Dark” EP on December 10, 2007 featuring the single plus 3 b-sides: “Redefine,” “Bombs,” and “Still.” The UK tour is scheduled for January 2008.

*“The waves of sound emanating from the stage tonight are nothing short of glorious. Accelerating through warm melodies and walls of guitars to a screaming, bug-eyed conclusion, all-new NY quartet God Fires Man straddle punk, hardcore and alt-rock with note-perfect precision.” - KERRANG!

God Fires Man:

Arthur Shepherd (vocals/guitar/keyboard) Joseph Grillo (guitar/keyboard/vocals)
Drew Thomas (drums) John Wilkinsen (bass/keyboard)

Godfiresman.com
indegoot.com

myspace.com/godfiresman
romopr.com