

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: AUG 30, 2010

CORNERSHOP: New USA Dates, New Material, Further New Material.

Cornershop are to revisit America (the first time in 8 years) to help push their current album Judy Sucks A Lemon For Breakfast which Sonic Youth's Thurston Moore claims "is the last Great British album." The release date for a new digital EP will be timed with these tour dates, and more details will be announced shortly.

The November Tour dates are:

11.11.2010 Seattle Showbox at the Market
11.12.2010 Portland Crystal Ballroom
11.14.2010 San Francisco The Independent
11.15.2010 Los Angeles El Rey Theatre
11.17.2010 Cambridge The Middle East Downstairs
11.18.2010 Philadelphia The Trocadero
11.19.2010 New York Irving Plaza
11.20.2010 Washington 9:30 Club
11.21.2010 Carrboro Cat's Cradle

In the meantime, a new Cornershop single is released on August 31, 2010. It features the new song "In June" with Tokyo musician Matsuki Ayumu on vocals and a new remix by Ayumu of "Who Fingered Rock n Roll" which can be heard (with accompanied visuals) at:

Time Out London has already deemed it, "Massive and brilliant."

A brand new Cornershop album featuring Bubbley Kaur is due out worldwide in February 2011 on Ample Play. A close label source says, "Cornershop are very upbeat about the new material, and they should be, it's outstanding and immediate" and in line with why Paul Morley at The Observer (UK) has described the band "as interesting and adventurous as The Beatles."
